Course Description

In this course, students study London's history and culture through visits, tours, talks, walks, screenings, and events. The scope of the study is by period and locale with directed and self-directed study, so students are able to follow their own interests; history, politics, music, fashion, cinema, art, or literature. This is a summer course for those who want to learn about London by seeing and experiencing it. The teaching focuses research skills and practical skills in photography and writing through practice-based workshops in photography, journalism, and creative writing
