Course Description

This is an overview course of the history of Western art and architecture from the late Middle Ages to the present. Special attention goes to the art of the Dutch and Italians. Gain familiarity with some of the major periods of Western artistic production, including the Middle Ages, the Renaissance, the Baroque, the Dutch Golden Age, Impressionism, and Modern Art. The course provides the fundamental knowledge of art history, with a particular focus on Western Europe. In case of interest, a global perspective in the history of art is offered in the course Global Visions, taught in Block 2 (English course and not part of the minor.) A museum excursion is planned as part of this course, for which the students need to support their individual costs of travel and admission.
