Course Description

This course studies basic ideas of sociology focusing on empirical topics such as city, gender, and religion. Sociologists such as Karl Marx, Max Weber, Emile Durkheim, and Jurgen Habermas are closely examined to understand the basic ideas of theories in contemporary sociology. Course topics include materialism, ideology and critical theory, social structure, religion and functionalism, social structures and social action, feminist and gender theories. Text: Pip Jones and Liz Bradbury, INTRODUCING SOCIAL THEORY.
