Course Description

This course is designed for students who have successfully completed the basic level of German. Students expand their competences in listening, speaking, reading, and writing and strengthen their knowledge of grammar, while emphasizing self-correction. Furthermore, students analyze and interpret cultural, political, and historical topics in German-speaking countries and compare them with their own cultural background. Students develop and regularly use new strategies for language acquisition and engage in detailed discussions on above mentioned topics. Furthermore, students develop reading strategies that allow for the understanding of different text types in detail. In addition, students improve their essay writing skills, and are able to write short texts on different topics, revise, and proofread them.
