Course Description
This course introduces financial accounting and reporting. Students learn how to record business transactions and draw up financial statements (balance sheet, income statement, and cash flow statement). The course covers the basic principles underlying the language of business which is essential to anyone who is involved in the preparation (e.g., controllers), monitoring (e.g., supervisory board members, auditors, stock market regulators), analysis (e.g., financial analysts, M&A consultants), or use (e.g., venture capitalists, governments, private shareholders, bondholders) of financial accounting information. The course also addresses other factors (such as accounting regulation, auditing, corporate governance and managerial incentives and judgement) that affect the preparation and use of financial statements as well as techniques for analyzing financial statements.
