Course Description
This course builds on the skills developed in Vietnamese 3. Students read, analyze, and discuss texts from literature, non-fiction, and academic sources covering a wide range of subjects related to the culture and society of Vietnam. Selection includes text and passage from short stories, journals, magazines, and newspapers, as well as audio-visual materials such as TV programs and feature films. The range of readings is intended, firstly, to broaden vocabulary and teach terms relating to many fields. Secondly, the objective is to introduce various aspects of the society and culture as expressed by Vietnamese writers.
