Course Description

This course focuses on the intersection of economics, politics, and culture in Asian societies. The course transcends the borders of academic disciplines and includes topics such as long-run economic development, intra-regional cooperation, social change, political and economic institutions, and the changing global role of Asian countries. It pays attention to topical issues such as the trade and the financial relations between China and the rest of the world. The goal of this course is to understand economic issues and economic developments in contemporary Asian societies in their social, cultural, and political context. Prerequisite for this course is Principles of Economics.
