Course Description

This intensive course is intended for foreign learners who have completed CHIN9503 (3 semesters) or have attained an equivalent level of competency. It develops audio-lingual proficiency as well as raises reading and writing ability. Students can use information obtained from the course to converse on daily topics with Chinese people, and present short speeches based on the assigned topics. Emphasis is placed on everyday topics and common patterns so that students can experience communication in Chinese. Students learn to write 250 new characters on top of approximately 500 characters acquired at the previous level. Students should be able to recognize no less than 1400 Chinese characters accumulated through previous learning. Students are taught to write short compositions of about 350 characters. Assessment: workbook, compositions, quizzes, midterm exams, final exams.
