Course Description

This Korean language course improves speaking and writing communication skills by practicing common conversations in daily life and practicing writing according to the words and sentences of different topics in each lesson and pronunciation rules. In addition, the class uses Korean songs, serials, and variety shows, to provide familiarity with the colloquial idioms other than textbooks. Various topics on Korean culture and Korean customs are regularly introduced such as interrogative sentences, familial and social norms, food, seasons, transportation, and weather. The prerequisite required for this course is Korean I (1).
