Course Description

This course provides students with a thorough understanding of core concepts and methods of macroeconomics as a foundation for subsequent study of macroeconomic topics, and as one of the key elements in the professional training of an economist. Students learn theories of macroeconomics at a level appropriate for an economics graduate. Students learn macroeconomic models, and solve and interpret problems based on such models. Students also use macroeconomic concepts and methods to analyze and interpret real-world macroeconomic phenomena, and to assess issues of macroeconomic policy.
