Course Description

This course examines several works of literature from writers across the globe. Each work precedes a distinct experience of a world culture from the inside. A number of overlapping threads connect the works in various ways: generational change and conflict in the context of cross-cultural globalization; evolving ideas of love, desire and identity amidst cultural shifts; colonialism and its after-effects. The texts are: Chinua Achebe, THINGS FALL APART; Isak Dinesen, ANECDOTES OF DESTINY; Min-Gyu Park, PAVANE FOR A DEAD PRINCESS; and Yaa Gyasi, HOMEGOING. Assessment: attendance, participation and in-class assignments, midterm exam, and final exam.
