Course Description

Specifically for non-History of Art majors. This course covers architectural practice and patronage from the 17th century onward, focusing on buildings and sites in London. Can be taken over the Fall Term or Spring Term. The specific content of these modules changes each year but the aim is to introduce students to various themes and issues in architectural practice and patronage from the medieval period to the present day, focusing on buildings and sites in London such as Westminster Abbey, St Paul's Cathedral, Chiswick House, the South Bank Center, the Barbican and Canary Wharf.
