Course Description

This course provides students with a strong basis of competition law and policy and an understanding of its relationship with economics. The focus of the course is European Union competition law, which serves as a model to competition law and enforcement in numerous countries across the world. The course also covers the substantive legislation and case law in France and generally contrast US antitrust law with EU law. No prior knowledge of competition law, economics, or specific industries is required. The sessions are a mix of lectures and discussion.
