Course Description

This course explores the place of creativity and the arts in youth culture and society more broadly. The course provides the opportunity to engage with ideas of creativity through performances and interactive tutorials and workshops. Topics include theoretical, sociological, psychological and political constructs of, and approaches to creativity and how they apply to developing creative capacities. This unit engages arts and art makers by exploring performances and the creative processes behind those performances. The assessment tasks also allow students to make their own creative pieces.
