Course Description

This course develops knowledge and understanding of the main concepts, principles, and rules of company law. The course explores the economic and political context of company law and in particular the way in which the law seeks to strike a balance between the interests of companies, shareholders, creditors, and the public. Students evaluate the place and role of Hong Kong companies, and companies in general, in modern society. Texts: B. Stott, HONG KONG COMPANY LAW. Assessment: blog, homework, exams.
