Course Description

This course provides a critical and comparative analysis of the works of Chilean authors, Gabriela Mistral (1889-1957), and Violeta Parra (1917-1967). It examines the fundamental features found in each author's poetic and cultural projects, taking into consideration the diverse sources (poetry, biographies, autobiographies, letters and articles), critiques, and historical context. It also compares the levels of the works of both poets: subject construction, country and landscape configuration in their poetry, cultural projects and amorous discourse.
