Course Description
In this course, students join an journey of exploration into Global Readiness®, the skills and attributes that can make or break your future success in international business, government or NGO work. Participants choose a specific area to focus on for a team project, and conduct primary and secondary research to increase understanding of leadership, team dynamics, and personal development. A key component of the class is Presentation Skills, your "personal presence" that is reviewed by yourself (via video links), classmates and the professor.
