Course Description

This course continues the study of Spanish grammar and further develops the four language skills of speaking, listening, reading, and writing while offering greater familiarity with the culture of Spain and Spanish America. The objectives of the course include the communication of simple, personal experiences from the past and present; the expression of needs, desires, opinions, and conjecture; the comprehension of the principal idea from simple written passages; the ability to write brief texts and messages referring to personal characteristics and surroundings. Assessment for the course is based on daily workbook exercises, weekly quizzes and compositions, a mid-term exam, and a final exam with both oral and written components.
