Course Description

This course provides advanced curriculum in Korean language study from a communicative and task-based approach. The primary medium of instruction is Korean. Students continue to develop and extend their understanding and use of Korean morphology, lexis, and syntax through reading and discussion of authentic Korean texts in Korean, by utilizing various reading strategies. Students participate in a variety of writing tasks, such as complex letters, literature responses, note taking, and essay writing. They also gain systematic practice of seminar presentations in a wide range of communicative situations such as professional and business conversations. Topics include proverbs, the information age, health, fashion, advertisements, entertainment, and Korean lifestyle.
