Course Description

The course is divided into three sections. The first section starts with a focus on European Foreign Policy for foreign policy analysis and vice versa. It considers what theories in International Relations can help explain the conduct of European Foreign Policy. Next, the institutional framework of the EU's foreign policy and the role of the member states in the formation of policy are considered. Finally, main external relations policies themselves are reviewed in detail. Main policy areas include: Common Defense Policy, Common Security Policy, Economic and Trade Policy, and Enlargement Policy.
