Course Description

This course offers an in-depth examination of the various formal dimensions of film such as cinematography, editing, mise-en-scène, acting, costume and sound, as well as the stylistic use of these techniques in the filmic form and narration. The course departs from watching and analyzing very recent films and offers glimpses into early cinema, Russian Film Montage, Weimar Cinema, neo realism, film noir, recent European Cinema and various aspects of world cinema. The course examines, among other topics, broader questions of cinema's relation to history, culture, and society. Bordwell and Thompson's introductory film textbook FILM ART. AN INTRODUCTION is used as a handbook. The course provides a comprehensive and systematic introduction to film aesthetics, including aspects of film analysis, film history, as well as film theory.
