Course Description
This intermediate Cantonese language course is for Mandarin speakers. Each lesson is centered on the topic and consists of a number of dialogues or short talks. The content is a socially oriented topic that revolves around the various aspects of Hong Kong society and people's livelihood. The same situational dialogue and conversational exercises expand the learner's vocabulary range, and further improve the pronunciation through the analysis of difficult speech points, so as to seek new knowledge. Let learners have more opportunities to apply Cantonese in life and study.
