Course Description

This course is designed for students who have successfully completed the intermediate level of German and who have a sound knowledge of German. The course deepens student's competence in speaking and writing and expands and refines their vocabulary usage, so that they are able to express and discuss ideas, opinions and information at the academic level. Special attention is given to the consistent use of self-correction. Furthermore, the course helps students to develop effective reading and listening strategies and deepen your knowledge of grammar structures. In addition, students analyze and interpret cultural, political, and historical topics in German-speaking countries and compare them with your own cultural background. Through this course students develop and regularly use new strategies for language acquisition. Students gain an improved ability to choose the right linguistic register for different situations, topics and communication partners. Students are able to lead and participate in academic discussions about certain course-related topics. In addition, students expand and refine their essay writing skills, are able to write, revise, and proofread essays that meet the standards of academic writing.
