COURSE DETAIL

INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT, AID AND HUMANITARIANISM
Country United Kingdom - Scotland
Host Institution University of Edinburgh
Program(s) Intern: Scotland,University of Edinburgh,Scottish Universities
UCEAP Course Level Upper Division
UCEAP Subject Area(s) International Studies
UCEAP Course Number 125
UCEAP Course Suffix
UCEAP Official Title INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT, AID AND HUMANITARIANISM
UCEAP Transcript Title INTL DEVELOPMT&AID
UCEAP Quarter Units 8.00
UCEAP Semester Units 5.30

Course Description

This course allows undergraduate students to develop an understanding of international development, aid, and humanitarianism from various social scientific perspectives (including politics, economics, anthropology, geography, and history. The course explores the histories, impacts, and legacies of international development planning and policy, introducing students to foundational issues in development studies, and offers them the opportunity to create a policy brief on a specific theme.

Language(s) of Instruction
English

Host Institution Course Number
AFRI08001

Host Institution Course Title
INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT, AID AND HUMANITARIANISM

Host Institution Course Details

Host Institution Campus
University of Edinburgh

Host Institution Faculty
School of Social and Political Science

Host Institution Degree

Host Institution Department

Course Last Reviewed

Print