Course Description

This course introduces the works of William Shakespeare, both on the page and on the stage. The course studies at least three key primary texts – The Tempest, Measure for Measure, and Othello – and combines close reading with an introduction to some theoretical approaches and a strong sense of how the plays operate in contemporary culture. Special emphasis is placed on London, both as the city in which these plays first premiered and as the city it is today, and how that inflects and inspires modern stage productions.
