Course Description

The first half of this course covers literary prose fiction and the second half covers non-fiction, drama, and poetry. Neither fiction aimed at children/young adults nor genre fiction feature in this course. This course stresses process writing, rewriting and editing as essential to the craft. Students read aloud their prose, poetry, and drama in writers' workshops. This course is predicated on acts of practice-led research. Therefore students are required to write critical introductions, citing relevant theory, to accompany all assignments including the portfolio.
