COURSE DETAIL

INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTIONS AND GLOBAL GOVERNANCE
Country United Kingdom - England
Host Institution King's College London
Program(s) King's College London
UCEAP Course Level Upper Division
UCEAP Subject Area(s) Political Science International Studies
UCEAP Course Number 114
UCEAP Course Suffix
UCEAP Official Title INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTIONS AND GLOBAL GOVERNANCE
UCEAP Transcript Title INTL INST&GLOBL GOV
UCEAP Quarter Units 6.00
UCEAP Semester Units 4.00

Course Description

This course provides an advanced introduction to global governance and the key international institutions that form the basis of global governance. It gives a detailed knowledge of the institutional landscape through which international political and economic interaction is mediated. The analysis is grounded in the theories of International Political Economy (IPE)/International Relations, which students are expected to familiar with.

Language(s) of Instruction
English

Host Institution Course Number
6SSPP342

Host Institution Course Title
INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTIONS AND GLOBAL GOVERNANCE

Host Institution Course Details
https://www.kcl.ac.uk/abroad/module-options/international-institutions-global-g...

Host Institution Campus
Strand Campus

Host Institution Faculty

Host Institution Degree
bachelors

Host Institution Department
Political Economy

Course Last Reviewed
2021-2022

Print