Course Description
This course provides an introduction to world fiction with particular focus on imaginative representations of plenitude and loss. This course surveys related but radically different visions of fulfillment, love, loss, and selfhood. Each work provides a distinct experience of a world culture from the inside. A number of overlapping threads connect the works through generational change and conflict in the context of cross-cultural globalization; evolving ideas of love, desire and identity amidst cultural shifts; and colonialism and its after-effects. Assessment: attendance and participation (20%), midterm (35%), final (45%). Texts: Achebe, C., THINGS FALL APART; Dinesen, I., ANECDOTES OF DESTINY; Park, M., PAVANE FOR A DEAD PRINCESS.
