Course Description

This course is based on the historical era (but not in the literary history mode). It focuses on the selection of the classic values of ancient poetry to understand the spirit of Chinese traditional culture. At the same time, it introduces the Chinese poetry in combination with the interpretation of the works. In this process, it highlights the beautiful life and social ideals of the ancestors, as well as the outstanding artistic innovation spirit, showing the charm of classical language. The courses focuses on the in-depth analysis of specific works, explores the problems faced by human beings in the process of human development and social progress, and guide students to carry out independent and positive thinking.
