Course Description

From its beginnings as a convict colony, Sydney had to deal with an unsavory reputation. This course explores the history of the city of Sydney, its people and its places. Distinct communities and neighborhoods emerged as battles were fought over who belonged in Sydney, and how they should behave. Topics include Aboriginal resistance, convict scandals, poverty and plague, the Razor Gang Wars, Mardi Gras protests, the Emerald City excesses of the 1980s, and the Cronulla riots.
