Course Description
This course offers an introductory survey of the development and major artistic achievements of Greek architecture, sculpture, and painting from the Greek Bronze Age through to the Hellenistic period. The course places art and architecture in its social, political, and cultural context. It explores themes such as the representation of the human form, the use of narrative and mythology in art, urbanization, and the development of architectural forms such as temples and theaters, with special attention to some of the iconic buildings and sites of the ancient world, such as the Parthenon, Delphi, and Olympia.
