Course Description

This course offers an additional conversational component to the Modern Hebrew: Aleph, Intermediate Level Hebrew course. For an additional 2 hours a week the class meets and discusses, debates, and practices conversational skills in Hebrew. This course is at level Aleph, the first and elementary level out of six levels of Modern Hebrew language instruction at the Hebrew University. In this course, students acquire the foundations of the language. Hebrew classes in level Aleph are generally subdivided into Aleph Beginners (for absolute beginners), Aleph Intermediate Beginners, and Aleph Advanced Beginners (for students with basic knowledge, including the alphabet and a limited vocabulary).
