Course Description

In this course students learn set dancing, a popular form of folk dancing in Ireland. Students examine the history of set dance from the promotion of Céilí dance during the 1930s and 1940s to the fade of set dancing caused by the rise of Rock and Roll in the 1950s. Students also see and practice set dances that were rediscovered as a result of set dancing's return to popularity in the 1980s. Students in this option undertake only one term of SET DANCING 2.
