Course Description
The course introduces the student to Modern Celtic language, alternating between Irish (uneven academic years) and Welsh (even academic years). The basics of the language are introduced in order to give students an elementary level of understanding in speaking and writing the language. Through sessions in the language laboratory and pronunciation exercises the student is familiarized with the sounds of the language and learn to conduct and comprehend basic conversation. Having finished the course the student should be able to read and write basic texts and be able to understand and carry out simple conversations.
