Course Description

The Hundred Years War was in reality a series of wars, on both land and sea, arising primarily from the political and dynastic conflicts of the kings of England and France. It was fought mainly in France but also engulfed Brittany, Scotland, the Iberian kingdoms, the Netherlands, and other countries. The first part of the wars is retailed in considerable detail by the contemporary chronicler, Jean Froissart, whose powerful portrait of warfare and political rivalry is set against a backdrop of chivalric endeavor and glory. The module takes its lead from Froissart's vivid chronicles. Tutorials are focused exclusively on various aspects of his chronicles and students are expected to write an essay on Froissart's work. Lectures concentrate on key themes associated with Froissart's world, such as kingship, chivalry and warfare, diplomacy, and popular revolt.
