Course Description
The course provides an in-depth examination of the history of Russia from 1917 to present day. Major topics include the Russian revolutions of 1917; the Soviet system under Bolsheviks and Stalin; the mass terror of the 1920s-1930s and during late Stalinism in the 1950s; the Great Patriotic War, the Thaw, the Cold War, the Perestroika, and the collapse of the USSR; the emergence of the post-Soviet republics; and the socio-economic developments in contemporary Russia. Special attention is given to continuities and discontinuities between Russia's imperial past and the Soviet period in Russian history, as well as the country's post-Soviet present.
