Course Description
This course provides an overview of popular music, examining the function of music in popular culture in a global context. Most of the songs we hear have been created within an international culture industry. They express cultural values and ideologies, and we use these as a way of constructing our identies. This course investigates theories of popular culture as they relate to music. It analyzes the many functions of popular music (including its role in film, television, and gaming) and examines the music industry. No prior musical knowledge is required.
