Course Description
The course helps students obtain deeper understanding in regards to colonized countries in the southern hemisphere; countries in Oceania and the Southern part of Africa where Dutch settlers settled to make these countries the vast economies that they are today. Students take a historical look at what the effects of the colonizers have on South Africa and its people as well as the Aboriginal people of Australia. Students learn who originally owned the land the colonizers took over and how the people of the land are currently living.
