Course Description

This course provides an introduction to the literary culture of the medieval period, highlighting some of the key cultural issues of this era. Students orient themselves in this long period (roughly from 600 to 1500) by looking at a range of texts and genres - poetry, prose, drama, lyric - from the early medieval as well as the later medieval periods. In exploring the various locations of the Middle Ages, students consider borders, boundaries, and zones between different places and periods.
