Course Description

Issues and Topics in Music offers a broad introduction to some of the main areas of music. These include an introduction to a key selection of music and music history from the Middle Ages to the 21st century; and 2) an introduction to contemporary topics and methodologies, such as jazz studies, ethnomusicology, or sound studies. The course gives students a solid basis of information and methodologies, a platform from which they can enter into more specialized work.
