Course Description

For Romantic poets and natural scientists, Christian missionaries and package tourists, the natural world was a source of inspiration and fascination. This course examines the ways the Victorians encountered and interpreted the natural world. Key themes include natural theology, Romanticism, imperial exploration and discovery, the growth of tourism, and the emergence of science as an expert profession. Students use contemporary documents to examine the ways in which different social and professional groups constructed and represented the natural world according to their own interests.
