Course Description
This course provides a survey of the history of western art music from 1600 to 1750. The course offers a narrative overview of the period and discusses developments in their historical, social, and cultural contexts while examining compositional techniques, styles, and genres. Among the issues identified for discussion are the invention of Opera, the rise of instrumental music, and Baroque genres and style culminating in the vocal and instrumental music of Bach and Handel. The course focuses, in particular, on music in Italy, France, and Germany and the relationships between these traditions.
