Course Description

The course is part of the LM degree program and is intended for advanced level students. Enrolment is by consent of the instructor. The course explores some fundamental moments in the history of contemporary art from the 1950s to the present, focusing on the main methodological, thematic, and theoretical issues that have emerged in the visual arts. Case studies are documented through the support of audiovisual materials. Places for incoming exchange students are limited and are reserved primarily for students enrolled in art related programs at their home university.
