Course Description

This course examines the main economic aspects of the current development of the European Union (EU) and its policies. The course covers the process of European Integration and its economic impacts on individuals, firms, and regions. Special attention is devoted to the analysis of the economic opportunities and challenges generated by economic integration, and to the assessment of the policies designed to support this process and mitigate its potential side-effects. The course touches on the institutional, political, and historical background of European integration, though its main focus is on the economic analysis of the policies and prospects for the European Union.
