Course Description

This course is designed for students who have successfully completed the basic level of German and who have a sound knowledge of German. This course is intensive and is intended for dedicated, highly self-motivated students who take responsibility for their learning. This course helps students to expand their competences in listening, speaking, reading, and writing as well as strengthen their knowledge of grammar, while emphasizing self-correction. Students also expand their knowledge of the German culture and analyze and interpret cultural, political, and historical topics in German-speaking countries and compare them with their own cultural background. Through this course students develop and regularly use new strategies for language acquisition and are able to engage in detailed discussions on above mentioned topics. Furthermore, students develop reading strategies that help to understand different text types in detail. In addition, students improve their essay writing skills and are able to write short texts on different topics, revise, and proofread them.
