Course Description

In the course, Latin is taught from scratch. The course covers the largest part of Latin grammar and syntax, except for the tense system and some advanced topics, such as the subjunctive and the gerund(ive). Hearing, speaking and writing Latin, all on an elementary level, are an integral part of the course. Attention is also paid to cultural aspects of Roman civilization, such as the Roman family, slavery, the geography of the Roman empire, mythology, and Roman education.
