Course Description

This course for intermediate beginners teaches the fundamental structures of Hebrew and its basic forms, and the necessary vocabulary for everyday conversations, reading, and writing on a limited scale. Focus is placed on comprehension: listening to short stories and recorded conversations; conversation: simple dialogues and stories from everyday life; reading: easy dialogues and passages without vowels, headlines, and simple, short texts in easy Hebrew; writing: short dialogues and passages on the topics taught in class; and grammatical skills: elementary syntactic and grammatical structures, inflection of the strong verb in the past and present tenses, and frequent weak verbs.
