Course Description

This course focuses on the political and diplomatic history of the Habsburg Empire, from the emergence of the Habsburg dynasty to the dissolution of Austria-Hungary at the end of World War I. Emphasis is put on key turning points, such as the reign of Maximilian I and his marriage policy, the figure of Charles V, the Battle of Mohacs and the birth of a Central European Empire, the Counter- Reformation, the enlightened absolutism of Maria Theresa and Joseph II, the system of Metternich, and the reign of Francis Joseph. This provides the framework for an analysis of interdisciplinary questions, such as the role of religion or the multinational Empire, focusing on the uniqueness of the culture developed in the Empire.
