Course Description

This course improves students' writing ability by reading and analyzing model essays in the following areas: practical writing (receipts, letters), descriptive and illustrative writing, argumentative writing, and narrative writing. It focuses on related vocabulary and grammar to improve the students' ability to correct sentence errors in written Chinese. Students expand their vocabulary, gain a better grasp of Chinese grammar and formal diction, and gain the ability to form a more logical structure for each type of composition. Assessment: midterm exam (50%) and a final exam (50%).
