Course Description

This course examines aspects of the visual arts from c.1700. It enhances the knowledge and skills of students who already possess a basic familiarity with the discipline, and broadens their knowledge of the history of art. Visiting students who are here for the full year are permitted to take one of the half courses History of Art 2A or 2B. If they want to do the full course they must be enrolled onto HIAR08012 to include the exam. The half courses are only open to visiting students.
